OVERVIEW

Minutes are usually taken at both informal staff meetings and business gatherings or at meetings other than the Board of Directors. Minutes are usually prepared immediately after meetings. Effective and high quality minutes, reports and briefs start with preparation long before a meeting.

In addition to practical instruction in the areas of primary concern to Corporate Secretaries and their teams, senior managers and their staff, all workshop attendees will:

- receive a comprehensive programme package containing facilitators' outline, samples of actual minutes, forms and case materials, and other useful information;
- be able to meet and work with experienced faculty members who have developed practical solutions to the problems being confronted by minute taking professionals;
- be able to network with fellow learners during the various breaks and to share experiences and solutions to common challenges.

WHO WILL ATTEND?

Appointed and aspiring Corporate Secretaries and members of their teams; anyone involved in minutes taking, recording, writing, reporting and records management and retrieval; Legal Secretaries; Administrative Assistants; Personal Assistants; Managers who cover internal and external meetings and have to formally report on these deliberations.

About the Qualifying Examination

The exam consists of 20 multiple choice questions to be completed in a Maximum of 40 minutes at the end of the course on which a candidate must score a minimum of 60% to be successful.
